LETTERS OF PERMANENT CUSTODY

- 1 The Director of Human Services is hereby appointed permanent custodian of the above-named child/children, with authority to delegate his/her duties to a professional member of his/her staff.
- 2 Until the child/children reach/reaches the age of eighteen or is/are adopted, permanent custody vests in the permanent custodian/s, each of the parental and custodial duties and rights of a legal custodian and family member, including, but not limited to, the following:
 - A To determine where and with whom the child/children shall live; provided the child/children shall not be placed outside the State without prior order of the Court;
 - B To assure that the child/children is/are provided in a timely manner with adequate food, clothing, shelter,

I do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original.

psychological care, physical care, medical care, supervision and other necessities;

C To monitor the provision of the child/children of appropriate education;

D To provide all consents that are required for the child's/children's physical or psychological health or welfare, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, psychiatric, psychological, educational, employment, recreational, or social needs; and to provide all consents for any other medical or psychological care or treatment, including, but not limited to surgery;

E To provide consent to adoption, change of name pursuant to HRS §574-5, or to marriage with prior Court approval; and

F To provide the Court with information concerning the child/children that the Court may require at any time, and to submit written reports to the Court stating the then-current situation and other significant information concerning the child/children at intervals not to exceed one year, unless otherwise ordered by the Court;

3 If the child/children reside/s without the home of the permanent custodian/s for a period of seven consecutive days, to submit a written report to the Court stating the then-current situation of the child/children on or before the tenth consecutive day or the next working day after such date;

4 Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the child's/children's family members shall retain, to the extent that each family member possessed such responsibility prior to the transfer of permanent custody, the continuing responsibility for support of the child/children, including, but not limited to, repayment for the cost of any and all care, treatment, or any other service supplied or provided by the permanent custodian/s, any subsequent permanent custodian/s, other authorized agency or the court for the child's/children's benefit;

5 A family member may be permitted visitation with the child/children at the discretion of the permanent custodian/s; provided that the exercise of such discretion may be reviewed by

6 An order of permanent custody shall not operate to terminate the mutual rights of inheritance of the child/children and the child's/children's family members or any other benefit to which the child/children may be entitled, unless and until the child/children has/have been legally adopted;

7 The permanent custodian/s shall have authority to receive funds and tangible properly deliverable to the child/children and apply the money and property for the support, care, and education of the child/children, and to exercise care to conserve any excess for the child's/children's needs; and

8 The permanent custodian/s shall serve without bond and without compensation and shall only be discharged upon the further order of the Court, but a discharge of the permanent custodian/s does not affect the permanent custodian's liability for prior acts, nor his/her/their obligation to account for funds and assets of the child/children. Resignation of a permanent custodian of the child/children does not terminate permanent custody until it has been approved by the Family Court.
